To President Bola Tinubu:

The Partisan Defence Committee vehemently condemns the Nigerian government's bloody repression of the #EndBadGovernance protests that occurred in August. Protests erupted because of mass starvation conditions brought by your government's economic shock therapy. Your outrageous response is killing and injuring protesters, arresting hundreds, ransacking trade union headquarters, hunting down activists and journalists and falsely charging some with crimes punishable by death.

We stand with the many trade unionists and others internationally who are demanding that you immediately free all the arrested protesters and journalists: Drop all the charges! Hands off the Nigeria Labour Congress! No reprisals!

Yours sincerely,
